Every Owner and occupant of any Lot or Dwelling shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration as set forth herein, any and all rules and regulations made pursuant to this Declaration, By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation of the Association, as amended from time to time. Failure of an Owner or occupant to so comply shall be grounds for action which may include, without limitation, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief, or any combination thereof. In addition to all other remedies, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Association, a fine or fines may be imposed upon an Owner for failure of an Owner, his family, guests, invitees, lessees or employees, to comply with any covenant, restriction, rule or regulation herein or in the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws....

WHEREAS, Article 6, Section 6.21, Subsections (a) through (g) of the said Declaration outline a procedural due process to follow in the event a fine is to be implemented;

WHEREAS, the Bylaws state, in ARTICLE VI, SECTION 7, that, "The Association may also pursue any other remedy against any member owing money to the Association which is available to it by law for the collection of debt."

WHEREAS, the Bylaws also state, in ARTICLE IX, that "these By-Laws may be amended or rescinded by the Board ... at any annual or special meeting called for such purpose."

"[t]o take such steps as may be necessary to implement any of the powers of the Association enumerated in Article II..."

WHEREAS, the Bylaws, in Article II, Section 2, contain inter alia, the following directives for the Board:

(f) To enforce charges, easements, restrictions, covenants, conditions and agreements existing upon or created by the benefit of the real property within the development.

(g) To levy annual charges upon Members and to declare the same a lien against the property subject thereto in accordance with the recorded subdivision restrictions relating to the development;

(h) To do all other things necessary or expedient for the administration of its affairs and the attainment of its purposes not otherwise inconsistent or in contravention of the laws of the State of North Carolina from time to time existing pertaining to corporations not for profit....

WHEREAS, the laws of the State of North Carolina now provide for the impositions of fines of $100.00 per day for continuing violations of restrictive covenants; and

WHEREAS, the Board hereby finds that the imposition of a fine in the amount of $100.00 per day for continuing violations of the Declaration is a reasonable, necessary and expedient tool for enforcing the Declaration, Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation, and all restrictions contained therein.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, pursuant to this Charge and after due deliberation, that:

Section 1. The Board has determined that a fine of $100.00 per day is reasonable and necessary to enforce violations of the restrictive covenants, and that the Board's power to levy such fine is hereby implemented immediately upon the recordation of this Resolution in the Transylvania County Registry; and subject to the procedural due process provisions outlined in Article 6, Section 6.21, Subsections (a) through (g) of the said Declaration, as the same may have been amended by this Resolution. Further, the Board need levy such fine only once, and the fine shall continue to accrue on a per diem basis following such levy, until the violation is discontinued and any damage caused thereby, remediated at property owner's expense, without further action by the Board.

Section 2. The fine shall be included in any Claim of Lien filed by act of the Board, and shall continue to accrue on a per diem basis following the filing of any such Claim of Lien, until the Claim of Lien is enforced by a sale of the subject property.

Section 3. The Secretary is to note the enactment of this Resolution in the Minutes of the Board, and shall effect publication of both the Minutes and this Resolution among the membership of the Eagle Lake Property Owners' Association, Inc., by First Class Mail.

ARTICLE IV - MEETINGS OF THE MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. PLACE OF MEETINGS: Meetings of the members of the Association shall be held in the County of the Association's principal office in the State of North Carolina at such particular place therein as stated in the notice for such meeting.

Section 2. ANNUAL MEETING: The annual meeting of the members of this Association for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting shall be held at such hour and on such day during the month of August of each year, as shall be determined by the Board.

Section 3. NOTICE: Written notice of each annual meeting shall be given to each member entitled to vote, either by personal delivery or by mail, addressed to such member at his record address appearing on the books of the Association. All such notices shall be sent to each member entitled thereto not less than ten (10) and not more than sixty (60) days before each annual meeting, and shall also state the general nature of the business or proposal to be considered or acted upon at such meeting.

Section 4. SPECIAL MEETING: Special meetings of the members for any purpose or purposes whatsoever may be called at any time by the Association President, by: (a) a majority of the Board; or (b) by not less than fifteen (15) members or twenty (25%) percent of members entitled to vote. Except in special cases where other express provision may be made by statute, notice of such special meetings shall be given in the same manner as for the annual meetings of members. Notices of any special meeting shall specify in addition to the place, date and hour of such meeting the specific purpose of the meeting and no other business shall be transacted at said meeting.

Section 5. ADJOURNED MEETINGS AND NOTICE THEREOF: Any members' meeting, annual or special, whether or not a quorum is present of the members, may be adjourned without a meeting if authorized in writing by all of the members who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting duly called.

Section 6. QUORUM: The presence at any meeting, in person or by proxy, of twenty-five (25%) of the membership entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum.

If any meeting, annual or special, cannot be held for lack of a quorum, the same may be adjourned, as hereinabove provided, for a period of time not less than forty-eight (48) hours nor more than thirty (30) days from the time the original meeting was called, at which adjourned meeting any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting.

Section 7. VOTING: There shall be only one (1) vote per lot despite joint or co-ownership. Only members in whose names memberships entitled to vote stand on the records of the Association on the record date for voting purposes, fixed as provided in ARTICLE VIII, Section 1, of these bylaws, shall be entitled to vote at such meeting.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any owner who owns two or more contiguous lots and has elected to have said contiguous lots treated as one (1) lot for purposes of the Restrictive Covenants shall have one (1) membership in the Section 8. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING: Any action, except the election of directors by mailed ballot pursuant to the provisions of Article V, or except as otherwise provided by law which under the applicable provisions of law may be taken at a meeting of the members, may be taken without a meeting if authorized in writing by all of the members who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting duly called.

Section 9. PROXIES: Every member entitled to vote or execute consents shall have the right to do so either in person or by an agent or agents authorized by a written proxy executed by such member or his duly authorized agent and filed with the Secretary of the Association.

ARTICLE V - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. POWERS: Subject to any limitations of the articles of incorporation, of these bylaws, and of the laws of North Carolina, all corporate powers of the Association shall be exercised by or controlled by a Board of Directors without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Directors shall have the following powers:

(a) To select and remove all officers, agents and employees of the Association and prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, with the articles of incorporation or these bylaws;

(b) To conduct, manage and control the affairs and business of the Association or any of its facilities or properties and to make such rules and regulations therefor as are not inconsistent with law, with the articles of incorporation or these bylaws or the Restrictive Covenants for the development;

(c) To change the principal office for the transaction of the business of the Association from one location to another as provided in ARTICLE I, hereof; to designate the place for the holding of members' meetings; and to adopt and use a corporate seal;

(d) To take such steps as may be necessary to implement any of the powers of the Association enumerated in ARTICLE II, hereof; and

(e) To appoint committees, and to delegate thereto its powers and authority in the management of the business and affairs of the Association and its property except the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws. Any such committee shall contain at least one (1) member of the Board.

Section 2. NUMBER AND QUALIFICATION: The authorized number of Directors shall be five (5). Their initial terms of office shall be fixed from time to time by the Board.

Section 3. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE: Until the first annual meeting of members the Directors shall be those individuals named in the Articles of Incorporation or their successors determined pursuant to Section 4 of this Article. At such meeting, and at each annual meeting of members thereafter, directors shall be elected to fill the vacancies of those members whose terms have expired; provided, however, that if for any reason any such annual meeting is not held, or the directors are not elected thereat, they may be elected at any special meeting of members held for that purpose. In any event, all Board Members shall hold office until their respective successors are elected.

The Board may also determine that elections of Directors may be held pursuant to mailed ballot where the agenda of the annual meeting of members may be such to justify the use of such method for elections as opposed to a meeting called for such purpose. Elections by mailed ballot shall be effective only if mailed to all members entitled to vote and if the total number of members returning ballots is equal to or exceeds the voting power of the Association required to constitute a quorum at any meeting duly called.

Terms of directors elected by the members shall be for three (3) years.

Section 4. VACANCIES. Vacancies on the Board may be filled by appointments made by a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and each member so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected by the members as herein provided.

A vacancy or vacancies on the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any director; if the authorized number of directors is increased; or if the members fail to elect the full number of directors to be voted for in any election.

No reduction of the number of acting directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his term of office.

Section 5. REGULAR MEETINGS. Immediately following each annual meeting of members, or if none is held, then following the election of directors by mailed ballot, the Board shall hold a regular meeting for the purpose of organization, election of Association officers and the transaction of other business. Call and notice of such meetings are hereby dispensed with.

Section 6. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board may be held at any time and for any purpose upon call by the President, or if he is absent or unable or refuses to act, by any Vice President or by any two (2) directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent by mail, addressed to such director's address as it is shown upon the records of the Association.

Section 7. WAIVER OF NOTICE: The transactions of any meeting of the Board, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though held at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present, and if, either before or after the meeting, each director not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to holding such meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. Such waiver, consent or approval may be telegraphed or cabled. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the Association records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Unless attending for the express purpose of objecting to the transactions of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened, a director who attends a Board meeting shall be deemed to have had timely and proper notice thereof.

Section 8. QUORUM: A majority of the acting number of directors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, except to adjourn as hereinafter provided. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the full Board unless a greater number be required by law.

Section 9. ADJOURNMENT AND NOTICE: A quorum of the Board may adjourn any Board meeting to meet again at a stated day and hour; provided, however, that in the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present at any Board meeting, either regular or special, may adjourn from time to time until the time fixed for the next regular meeting of the Board. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.
